CORPORATION

New Jersey Community Development Corporation (NJCDC) is a non-profit community development and social-service agency based in Paterson, New Jersey—one of the state's largest and most economically distressed cities. Our core work is on neighborhood revitalization, youth development, education, affordable and supportive housing, the preservation of the Great Falls Historic District, and public-policy innovation. We serve over 2,000 kids in our education and youth development programs in the Paterson area and your support with our "Fore the Kids" Golf Outing will allow our work to flourish. Please visit us at www.njcdc.org for more information.
